Chairwoman's Message

Welcome to the first newsletter of 2019. The committee hope that Christmas and the start of the New Year went well for everyone. We seem to have escaped any "Beasts from the East" this year so far, although I might be missing something being out of the country at the time of writing. There's dedication for you!

So what, you might ask, have the committee been doing on your behalf since the last communication?

Many of the obvious activities have kept us busy. Erecting and taking down the Christmas tree last year with the help of Ruth and Roy Nettleship, Jonathan Blacknell and Kevin McCormick plus Keith Youldon, who thanks to his generosity, allows us to use his electricity, enabling the lights to be switched on.

Many of you came to our following on event, the switching on of the lights. More of us attend each year, including the Carol singing around the village. Live musical accompaniment always makes such a difference to an event like that so we are fortunate in having Jill Barker's skills, to aid our singing efforts. If you missed last year make a note to join us in December for more Carol singing, mulled wine, roasted chestnuts and warmed mince pies.

Following on from those activities came the Christmas lunch. So many attended this event that it at times, for some, felt overcrowded, which was a shame. We may have to restrict numbers this year. I'm sure the increased popularity is down to the add on events. We all love the rendition of the twelve days of Christmas now that we have almost got the hang of it and we also had a Christmas quiz this time which had teams bringing out their competitiveness, all for the pleasure of winning a Christmas tree chocolate!

These are the activities that you are aware of but there is much more to being on the committee than that. Members deliver the newsletters and sell tickets. The committee share out the village areas so that each has a responsibility for each part. This enables us to get to know everyone plus is a point of contact for you should you need to ask a question or need help in any way.

A huge behind the scenes job comes when we organise the already mentioned Christmas lunch and Summer Garden Party particularly the food. Kath Spencer and Glenys Blacknell have been organising the food for these events for over a decade and in Kath's case almost two decades. Deciding what food and how much of it is quite a skill. Then there is shopping for it all and the preparation of sandwiches etc. This part isn't completely left to Kath and Glenys as they have had a team of helpers sharing out the various tasks. However for a variety of understandable reasons they feel that it is time to hand over the role to someone else. If you feel that you could help with these two events, in any way, please get in touch. I know that they are happy to give advice and pass on tips but it is time for some fresh faces to take over.

Of course the fish and chip supper and disco is much easier to organise. This year, for a change we are able to hold it in the church. Those who go to the ceilidh in the church will already know what a fantastic place it is for holding events such as this. More people can attend, there is more space for dancing and historically I hear that churches in the past were used frequently for community events so do come along and join us. We will be out selling tickets shortly.

Other behind the scenes roles include checking on any upcoming planning issues not just in the village but in the nearby communities.

The proposed quarry at Mill Hill which would affect Barton in Fabis mostly but will also impinge on our quality of life has seen Graeme, Ed and myself liaising with their committee. We have been in touch with our councillors and MP to engage their support. I went with Julian Coles from Barton and Lilian Greenwood to County Hall for a meeting that Lilian had arranged with the planners where we were able to highlight our concerns and ask pertinent questions regarding the choice of the site. We continue to support Barton in Fabis as this is an ongoing issue.

The proposed housing behind Barton Green has also kept us extremely busy in a similar way. Ed Peterson and I attended a city council meeting in December to hear that provisional planning had been passed. Councillor Corall Jenkins has been extremely supportive of the local communities in opposing planning which would affect our woodland and the village houses closest to the site plus the greater affect it would have on Barton Green residents which you will have read about in the free local newspaper.

With the help of a Barton in Fabis resident we have now sent a request to the Secretary of State for a call back on the planning. This issue has kept me extremely busy both before and after Christmas and we have now managed to obtain Lilian Greenwood's involvement to try and help resolve some contentious issues particularly over traffic access.

What issues as these does, is to bring our communities together in support. Corall Jenkins held a meeting about the housing in the village hall which some from the village attended with a larger number from Barton Green. As a result we now have email contact with more of those residents plus they are able to be in touch more easily with one another.

On this thought we are hoping to be able to email out our newsletter to those who would prefer to receive it that way. Hopefully this will be an easier way to keep track of when village activities occur, as not everyone can remember where their paper copy went amongst all the other paperwork we receive. For everyone else a printed copy will still be available.

When committee members call round please let them know if you prefer the emailed copy, let us have your email address and then future copies and any urgent village messages can be sent to you digitally. We of course will not use your information for any other purposes. We will comply with current legislation.

In May we hold our AGM in the village hall. If you feel that you would like to get more involved and come on the committee or help in any other way let us know.

We hope to see many of you at our next event, the fish and chip supper. Finally thanks to everyone who has helped make our community a great place to live over the last year. In addition to those already mentioned I must include Clare Ashton who helps in many village activities throughout the year and ensures that the village hall is a hive of activity throughout the week. She is ably supported by Francis Buck who takes care of any village hall repairs and maintenance. Additionally Francis has stepped in to help coordinate the village litter picking teams, temporarily for Alma Davies who has really taken the bull by the horns, not just here but in the wider Clifton area ensuring that everywhere becomes free of this modern day scourge. There are many others I could mention if space allowed.

Meanwhile keep up to date with village events on Facebook, looked after by Phil Bull or on the village website which Jonathan Blacknell updates for us and don't forget to check on the village noticeboard for any activities that you might be interested in. We hope to see you at some of them.
